

If you are still having problems viewing this message, please click here for additional help.

Visit London What's New Press Briefing

December 2007

Hotels | Attractions | Exhibitions | Events
Bars & Restaurants | Theatre & Film

December highlights include the West End's biggest ever traffic-free shopping day, a brand new Winter Wonderland festival in Hyde Park and the beginning of London's Christmas panto season. Check out Visit London's Christmas web pages for lots more festive things to see and do.

Hotels

The Christmas Pudicure at Brown's

The Spa Brown's is launching a Christmas Pudicure – a non-calorific way to enjoy Christmas pudding! The treatment includes a glass of chilled Champagne or a hot chocolate; a soothing black treacle massage; exfoliation using a blend of oranges, apples, sultanas, apricots, raisins and sugar; a foot soak in hot milk and cinnamon and a pressure point foot massage. A cinnamon paraffin foot wrap is then applied, making the feet feel super soft, before the nails are painted. For more information contact Nina Colls on +44 (0)20 7518 4169.

Bright Lights of London at the Landmark London

To celebrate the switching on of London's Christmas lights, The Landmark has introduced a 'Bright Lights of London' package. The three night stay includes a four hour chauffeur driven tour around Regent Street, Trafalgar Square and Oxford Street, an ESPA full body massage, unlimited use of the new Spa & Health Club, an ESPA Christmas gift, afternoon tea, a Christmas tree and a sprig of mistletoe in the room.

For more information contact Linsey Brown at Luxe PR on +44 (0)20 7288 0800.

Luxury Christmas Shopping Weekend at the Mandeville

The Mandeville Hotel has launched an exclusive 'Luxury Christmas Shopping Weekend' package, available any weekend from 1 to 22 December. The package includes two nights accommodation, an energy boosting breakfast for two, an in-room shopping map, a gift wrapping service, a 30 minute spa treatment at Selfridges and a Pink Afternoon Tea for two including Mulled Wine.

For more information contact Sophie Darley at Peretti Communications on +44 (0)20 7915 4777.

Selfridges Shopping Sensation at the Hyatt Regency London - The Churchill

The five star Hyatt Regency London - The Churchill's 'Selfridges Shopping Sensation' package is ideal for Christmas and January sale shopping. Guests receive £50.00 worth of Selfridges gift vouchers, a bottle of chilled Champagne on arrival and full English breakfast in The Montagu restaurant.

For further information contact Henny Frazer on +44 (0)20 7299 2080.

A Capital Christmas

The Capital hotel is going all-out for guests this Christmas with special festive Harrods gifts for all bookings made in December. Guests booking two nights in a Junior Suite will find a pack of eight luxury Fleur de Lys Christmas crackers, exclusive to Harrods, adorning the room. These beautifully ornate crackers contain a hand selected assortment of leather, crystal and stainless steel gifts. Perfectly located for Christmas shopping, The Capital is situated next door to Harrods and just a minute's walk from Harvey Nichols.

For more information contact Julie Kemp at The Dovetail Agency on +44 (0)20 7602 6953.

'The Guest Wing' at the Jumeirah Lowndes Hotel

As relatives descend for the Christmas holidays, some residents either don't have the space to put the whole family up or simply prefer to...outsource them. Extended family can book the Jumeirah

Lowndes Hotel's 'The Guest Wing' package, which includes an overnight stay, a direct dial from your room to the family home, a personalised family photo frame in room, a 'walk you back in Belgravia' service, full English breakfast and complimentary use of the Peak Health Club & Spa at the neighbouring Jumeirah Carlton Tower.

For more information contact Sara Eresen at Beth Cooper Public Relations on +44 (0)1483 222 676.

Celebrate Christmas in style at K West Hotel & Spa

K West Hotel & Spa, one of London's leading design hotels, is the perfect place to celebrate Christmas in style. The hotel has just introduced the 'Christmas SParkle' package at K Spa. Choose a half hour express facial or back and shoulder massage, followed by a pit stop manicure in Vanity K nail bar. Top off the experience with a glass of sparkling buck's fizz.

For more information contact Verena Neumayr at Luxe PR on +44 (0)20 7288 0800.

Attractions

Free festive late night openings at Kew Gardens

Visitors will have a unique opportunity to visit Kew Gardens by moonlight on 14 and 15 December, when they open free of charge to the public. A winter walk lighting up some of Kew's beautiful trees and historic buildings will create an atmospheric display. Activities will include a rousing carol concert and children's rides.

For more information contact the Kew Gardens Press Office on +44 (0)20 8332 5607.

Be a Keeper's little helper at ZSL London Zoo

There's festive fun to be had at ZSL London Zoo this December with interactive winter workshops to make tasty treats for the animals. Prepare a scrumptious stocking for a bearded pig or a special gift for a squirrel monkey and see the animals tuck into their delicious presents. Keeper's Little Helpers sessions are free to all visitors.

For more information contact Joanna Green on +44 (0)20 7449 6236.

Christmas activities at Imperial War Museum

Imperial War Museum London has a host of free family activities to keep children amused and entertained during the festive season. Meet Dorothy, Scarecrow, Tin Man and Lion from The Wizard of Oz, one of the most popular films screened during the Second World War. Afterwards visit The Children's War exhibition and find out what life in wartime Britain was like for children. Visitors can also learn more about everyday life on the home front in the recreation of a 1940s house, which will be decorated with a Christmas tree and presents.

For more information contact Victoria Main on +44 (0)20 7416 5497.

Hampton Court Palace Ice Rink

Hampton Court Palace's outdoor ice rink returns from 1 December to 13 January (excluding Christmas Day). Set against the magnificent backdrop of Henry's Tudor palace, this much anticipated ice rink is set to be as popular as ever with children and adults alike. If skating isn't your thing, watch others from the comfort of the traditional carousel.

For more information contact Amy Wright or Sarah Watson on +44 (0)20 3166 6166.

Tudor Cookery at Hampton Court Palace

Whilst the festivities above stairs get underway, below stairs Hampton Court's Tudor cooks are hard at work discovering and creating the dishes that tickled the Tudor's taste buds. Experience the sounds and smells of the fully functional Tudor kitchen, and watch the team of food archaeologists in action as they experiment with recipes, ingredients and cooking techniques. 1 to 2 December and 27 December to 1 January.

For more information contact Amy Wright or Sarah Watson on +44 (0)20 3166 6166.

Merry Medieval Christmas at the Tower of London

It is Christmas 1284 at the Tower from 27 to 31 December. Join in the jovial atmosphere of King Edward's court as they celebrate the festive season with entertainers, musicians and fools.

Accompany the king and his court as they gather for traditional tales and fun aplenty!

For more information contact Amy Wright on +44 (0)20 3166 6166.

London Eye launches new winter packages

The British Airways London Eye has launched a range of new packages for the winter season. These include the Mistletoe Cupid's Capsule, a new British Cheese package, and a private party package with a choice of delicious chocolate truffles and winter Pimms or spiced mince pies and warm mulled wine.

For more information contact the British Airways London Eye Press Office on 0870 220 2777.

L.A. Sugar opens in Newburgh Street

L.A. Sugar boutique has opened in Newburgh Street, just off Carnaby Street. This fabulous boutique exclusively draws together a desirable hybrid of L.A.'s hottest womenswear fashion brands all designed and produced in L.A. The collections have a celebrity fashion pack following including Lindsay Lohan, Paris Hilton, Cameron Diaz, Eva Longoria and the Sex and the City stars. For more information contact Kay Copeland at Sister PR on +44 (0)20 7287 9601.

Wembley Stadium Tour launched

Wembley Stadium has launched a Wembley Stadium Tour and a Stadium Store. For the first time guests can experience their own 90 minutes at Wembley by taking a tour behind the scenes and following in the footsteps of their heroes. From hearing the famous Wembley roar as you walk out of the player's tunnel, to walking up to the Royal Box to lift the Cup - now fans too can experience what these magic moments feel like.

For more information contact the Wembley Stadium Press Office on +44 (0)20 8795 9696.

Exhibitions

Sleeping & Dreaming at Wellcome Collection

Sleeping & Dreaming, a groundbreaking exhibition that explores sleep – the mysterious state we all inhabit for a third of our lives – will be the second major temporary exhibition at Wellcome Collection. A full programme of public events, including David Baddiel discussing insomnia, an exclusive preview of a new film work by Catherine Yass and an investigation into dreaming, will support the exhibition, which runs from 29 November to 10 March. Entry is free.

For more information contact Will Kallaway or Anna Cusden on +44 (0)20 7221 7883.

From All Walks Of Life: Genre Paintings from the Royal Academy Collection

This new display in the John Madejski Fine Rooms at the Royal Academy of Arts from 1 to 7 December is a social commentary exploring the rich variety of paintings that reflect common themes of life from the 18th to 20th centuries. The exhibition consists of 34 pieces from the Academy's own collection – most of which are Academicians' Diploma Works and represent everyday life dating back to the 1770s.

For more information contact Johanna Bennett on +44 (0)20 7300 5615.

Events

West End goes traffic-free for biggest ever Christmas shopping day

Christmas will kick off in style on 1 December with the biggest shopping day ever in London's West End. Hundreds of retailers will be pulling out all the stops for the Shop West End VIP Day (that's Very Important Pedestrians). For the first time in history Bond Street, Oxford Street and Regent Street will be traffic-free to ensure pedestrians receive the ultimate in red carpet treatment.

For more information contact Simone Harvey or Michelle Lowery at Rain UK on +44 (0)20 7222 4345.

Jermyn Street's luxury shopping evening

On 6 December Jermyn Street will be closed to traffic from 5pm to 8pm when the street will host a luxury shopping evening in association with Harper's Bazaar and Esquire. Customers can enjoy marching bands, mulled wine and mince pies, port master classes, magicians and Christmas carols, as well as superb luxury Christmas shopping until late.

For more information contact Katie Thomas at Identity PR on +44 (0)20 7388 9988.

Hyde Park's Winter Wonderland

From 1 December to 6 January Hyde Park will host a brand new winter festival. The 24,000m² Winter Wonderland will feature London's largest outdoor ice rink, a toboggan slide, a traditional German Christmas market, numerous cafes and bars, an incredible 50m giant observation wheel offering magnificent views of Hyde Park, a carousel, a helter-skelter, carol concerts and a selection of amusement rides.

For more information contact Annabel Fox at The Outside Organisation on +44 (0)20 7462 2924.

Bankside Frost Fair

The annual Bankside Frost Fair (Friday 14 to Sunday 16 December) harks back to a time hundreds of years ago when the River Thames froze over and Londoners took to the ice. Today the fair is held along the riverwalk outside Tate Modern and Shakespeare's Globe and features Husky dog sledding, a winter market with over 70 stalls, music and entertainment, street theatre, ice sculptures, mulled wine and ale and festive food, plus a lantern parade on the Friday.

For more information contact Lisa Holmes on +44 (0)20 7525 2296.

Southbank Centre's Christmas Lights

As part of Southbank Centre's Christmas celebrations, The Hayward has commissioned Anya Gallaccio to create artist-designed Christmas lights. Gallaccio is famed for creating site-specific installations, often using organic materials as her medium. David Batchelor's 2006 commission Festival Remix will also return to illuminate the site. Light lovers should gather on 6 December for the switching on ceremony.

For more information contact Gillian Fox on +44 (0)20 7921 0631.

Southbank slow food market

Southbank Centre will host the inaugural slow food market in London, brought to you by Slow Food UK. From Thursday 20 to Sunday 23 December, the Christmas market, outside the Royal Festival Hall on Southbank Centre Square, will feature more than 20 stalls offering outstanding fresh and preserved foods as well as sustainably produced crafts.

For more information contact Gillian Fox on +44 (0)20 7921 0631.

Chelsea Physic Garden Christmas Fair

Chelsea Physic Garden's traditional Christmas fair on Sunday 2 December is the perfect place to stock up for the festive season, with stalls supporting fair trade wherever possible, selling gifts, toys, accessories, cashmere goods, handmade winter clothing, wreaths, foodstuffs, confectionery and more. There will also be children's activities, winter-themed guided tours and seasonal refreshments including mulled wine and mince pies.

For more information contact Lucy Jamieson on +44 (0)20 7352 5646 x 21.

Real life advent calendar lights up Greenwich

December sees the launch of an innovative idea which will light up 24 shops, homes, institutions, pubs and schools across Maritime Greenwich in the lead up to Christmas. Believed to be the first of its kind, a real life advent calendar is being staged by St Alfege Church in Greenwich. The Advent Windows Project will involve a newly decorated window being revealed on each day of advent (1 to 24 December) in different parts of Greenwich. They will remain on view until 6 January.

For more information contact Pat Edgar at PR Matters on +44 (0)1494 764 932.

Huskies take over from horses at Kempton Park

Wednesday 12 December is Husky Racing Night at Kempton Park Racecourse, where after some top class horseracing under the floodlights, the sound of Huskies howling will arise from the track. Four Father Christmas's will compete against each other in the husky-drawn sleighs along the all weather course, which is sure to bring some merry cheer to the crowd.

For more information contact Sophia Brudenell on +44 (0)20 7385 5635.

Christmas events at the Science Museum's Dana Centre

Shop Till You Drop (6 Dec) and Dreaming of a Green Christmas? (4 Dec) will allow visitors to explore the science and psychology behind shopping or shop for sustainable gifts at the 'Green Christmas' bazaar.

For more information contact Kerry Law on +44 (0)20 7942 4328.

Good Times Live – New Year's Eve at the Clapham Grand

Like a shining beacon of Carnival spirit, Good Times Live on New Year's Eve is here to guarantee a full on celebration! Norman Jay MBE, famous for attracting massive crowds to his Notting Hill Carnival sound system, has previously held two hugely successful Good Times New Year's Eve parties at The Clapham Grand and is planning something extra special for the third.

For more information contact Miranda Cook at PMP on +44 (0)7904 390 509.

New Year's Eve at belowzero

This New Year's Eve, belowzero restaurant + lounge with the ever popular Absolut Icebar London will be transformed into a winter wonderland. Guests will be greeted by a snow queen with her trusted steeds in the form of Husky dogs. Internationally known DJ Pereira will take to the decks all evening until 4am with a mix of soulful funky and deep house grooves with some commercial pop music to create the perfect party atmosphere.

For more information contact Puja Khanna on +44 (0)7894 208 848.

Burlesque Soiree at The Gore Hotel

Prepare to be seduced as Bar 190 at The Gore Hotel presents a Burlesque Soirée with Miss Polly Rae and the 'Hurly Burly Girllys' on 11 December. Miss Polly and Hurly Burly burst onto the London Burlesque scene this year and were voted 'Best Troupe 2007' in the Ministry of Burlesque Awards. Entry is free and the first 100 guests who arrive in Burlesque attire will receive a complimentary glass of Champagne Lanson.

For more information contact Verena Neumayr at Luxe Public Relations on +44 (0)20 7288 0800.

Baroque Idol! at Handel House Museum

Baroque Idol! on Sunday 2 December will provide a glimpse of the day-to-day life of an aristocratic child in Handel's time. See how a child copied the latest fashions of an 18th-century celebrity, how they were educated and the importance of the master of music and dancing in ensuring that any noble child grew into a refined and fashionable courtier. Suitable for ages 7 plus.

For more information contact Shuk Kwan Liu on +44 (0)20 7399 1954.

Race of Champions

Wembley Stadium will be turned into a tarmac race track for the Race of Champions on 16

December. The spectacular event will see drivers including F1 legend Michael Schumacher, Jenson Button, David Coulthard and others battle it out in a champion of champions decider. For more information contact Michelle Tomlin on +44 (0)1908 635 300.

Shilpa Shetty in Miss Bollywood

Shilpa Shetty stars in Miss Bollywood at the Royal Albert Hall on 12 December. The musical follows the story of Maya, a young classically trained choreographer who finds herself thrust into the limelight. Her tribulations include the unwanted attentions of a famous but predatory choreographer and a jealous diva.

For more information contact Natasha Singh at Stirling Media on +44 (0)20 7801 0077.

Tim Henman to play Stefan Edberg at BlackRock Masters Tennis

Tim Henman will take on two-time Wimbledon champion Stefan Edberg at the BlackRock Masters Tennis at the Royal Albert Hall on 4 December to raise money for his Kids at Heart charity. Bjorn Borg, John McEnroe, Pat Cash and Goran Ivanisevic are also due to take part in the event, which runs from 4 to 9 December.

For more information contact Katie Leach on +44 (0)20 8233 5823.

Bars & Restaurants

The Landau

The Landau, the new destination restaurant at The Langham London, opens on 27 November following the opening of the glamorous Artesian cocktail bar earlier this year. Head Chef Andrew Turner - most recently at Pennyhill Park Hotel & Spa in Surrey and previously at '1880' at The Bentley and '1837' at Browns Hotel - will be re-creating his four, five, six and seven course grazing menus at The Landau.

For more information contact Nick Barrington-Wells on +44 (0)20 7973 7515.

Arsenal and Raymond Blanc form a winning team

Arsenal Football Club and Michelin starred chef Raymond Blanc have teamed up to create one of London's most exclusive event destinations. Arsenal has announced the opening of its Diamond Club to non-members. The prestigious venue is opening its doors on non-matchdays for private meetings and events. The Diamond Club encapsulates the quality, craftsmanship and tradition of the Art Deco period and was designed to provide 84 members with one of the most luxurious sports hospitality offerings.

For more information contact Sarah Townend on +44 (0)20 7704 4554.

Christmas Day dining at the Landmark London

Top Chef Gary Klaner has created an enticing range of festive menus for guests dining in the Landmark London's Winter Garden restaurant. Christmas Day lunch includes a fabulous five-course menu, commencing with a glass of Taittinger Champagne and including a visit from Father Christmas. A four course Christmas Day dinner with Champagne is also available.

For more information contact Linsey Brown at Luxe PR on +44 (0)20 7288 0800.

Seasonal celebrations at Las Iguanas

With two lively locations at Festival Riverside and The O2, Christmas dining at Las Iguanas promises to bring something different to the table. The restaurants are serving up classic Christmas dishes with a Latin twist in the form of Fajitas stuffed with chicken, cranberry, lemon and coriander salsa or Portobello mushroom, butternut squash and chestnut.

For more information contact Charlotte Hazelby or Alison Jennings at CSPR on +44 (0)117 9441166.

Christmas Day at The Cinnamon Club

For a Christmas Day with a difference head to fine dining Indian restaurant, The Cinnamon Club, where the memorable Christmas Day menu makes a change from all the usual trimmings. Executive Chef Vivek Singh has created original and indulgent dishes that are a must for a deliciously hot yuletide. With a nod to the traditional sprinkled throughout the three-course menu, spirits are sure to be raised.

For more information contact Ben Groom at Roche Communications on +44 (0)20 7436 1111.

The Mandeville Hotel launches unique flowering Christmas punch

To celebrate the festive season the Mandeville's deVigne Bar has created a unique punch, heaven on earth. Rémy Martin's new Coeur de Cognac is infused with a mix of flavours, from exotic fruits and baby roses to dark chocolate and fresh basil. The hot punch is carefully poured over an osmanthus flower, a rare Chinese flower that looks rather like a raspberry. The flower bud delicately blooms when the hot punch is added.

For more information contact Sophie Darley at Peretti Communications on +44 (0)20 7915 4777.

Chic new winter cocktail list at Pearl

As the Christmas spirit sweeps over the capital, guests can relax in Pearl's stylish surroundings and choose from an enticing array of new festive cocktails. These include three hot cocktails - Yuletide Toddy, Hot Santa and Jasmine Pearl - and three chilled cocktails - Holly Berry Sour, Chestnut Flip and Christmas Bells.

For more information contact Linsey Brown at Luxe PR on +44 (0)20 7288 0800.

Langtry's Restaurant launches dinner with unlimited Laroche wines

Langtry's Restaurant in Knightsbridge has just launched a 'Limitless Laroche Dinner'. Served every evening from Monday to Saturday, it includes a fabulous dinner with unlimited red or white wine from the prestigious Laroche cellar. Priced at only £29.50 for two courses and £35.00 for three courses per person, the dinner offers excellent value for money.

For more information contact Linsey Brown at Luxe PR on +44 (0)20 7288 0800.

Theatre & Film

Cinderella at Richmond Theatre

Star of stage and screen Nigel Havers is set to charm audiences as the Baron in the ultimate rags-to-romance fairytale, Cinderella. The show is a perfect festive family treat in the sumptuous setting of a real Victorian theatre and audiences will be left in no doubt as to why this enchanting tale is still the most popular Christmas and New Year choice!

For more information contact Melissa Gerbaldi on +44 (0)20 8939 9228.

LOFT at the Roundhouse

From 6 to 30 December Canadian based The 7 Fingers, former members of Cirque de Soleil, bring the visually stunning, hilariously funny show LOFT to the Roundhouse – in a whirlwind of trapeze, contortion, aerial acrobatics, dance, song and music.

For more information contact Manisha Ferdinand or Paul Drury at Idea Generation on +44 (0)20 7749 6850.

Dealer's Choice at Trafalgar Studios

The Menier Chocolate Factory's record-breaking, sold out production of Patrick Marber's play directed by Samuel West is transferring to Trafalgar Studios 1 from 6 December. Long before poker had achieved today's stratospheric level of popularity, Dealer's Choice chronicled the machinations of the Sunday night game.

For more information contact Jill Cotton at The Corner Shop on +44 (0)20 7494 3665 or +44 (0) 7931 723 988.

A Christmas Carol at the Greenwich Playhouse

Flat Pack Productions present a new dramatisation of A Christmas Carol by Brian Sibley at the Greenwich Playhouse. A cast of eight actors, aided by puppets, bring to life all of the well known characters in this classic seasonal story – including Scrooge, Marley, Bob Cratchit, Tiny Tim, Mr and Mrs Fezziwig and the spirits of Christmas Past, Present and Future. Uniquely, in this version, there is another central presence – Charles Dickens himself – who introduces and guides the characters throughout the story. From 4 December.

For more information contact Rebecca Stoddart on +44 (0)773 444 5826.

The Snowman at the Peacock Theatre

Celebrating 10 spellbinding years on the stage the live version of Raymond Briggs' much-loved children's classic, The Snowman, returns to the Peacock Theatre from 5 December to 6 January. The show tells the magical story of a young boy's adventures when his snowman comes to life on Christmas Eve. A glittering host of international snowmen and snowwomen are joined onstage by an array of colourful characters including dancing penguins, magical reindeer, a beautiful snow princess and her abominable beau Jack Frost and of course, Father Christmas himself.

For more information contact Ciaran McKenna on +44 (0)20 7863 8114.

Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs at New Wimbledon Theatre

Ross Kemp is to star as the villainous Henchman in New Wimbledon Theatre's spectacular family pantomime, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, from 7 December to 20 January. Bobby Davro will star as Muddles the Court Jester. Prof the Chief Dwarf is played by Warwick Davis who starred as Professor Flitwick in Harry Potter and BBC Radio 2 Voice of the Year winner Aimie Atkinson is Snow White.

For more information contact Laura Riches on +44 (0)20 8545 7919.

Jack and the Beanstalk at the Barbican

The Barbican presents its second pantomime, Jack and the Beanstalk, from 1 December to 12 January. The show includes all the favourite characters including the hero himself, his mother Dame Dolly Deluxe, Fairy Liquid, King Norman, his beautiful daughter Princess Melody and of course the dreaded giant. Find out what happens when Jack swaps his family's last possession, Daisy the cow, for a handful of magic beans. This family pantomime promises to be the stalk of the town!

For more information contact Angela Dias on +44 (0)20 7382 7168.

Matthew Bourne's Nutcracker! at Sadler's Wells

This delicious theatrical feast has family sized helpings of Matthew Bourne's trademark wit, pathos and magical fantasy. Nutcracker! follows Clara's bittersweet journey from a hilariously bleak Christmas Eve at Dr. Dross' Orphanage for waifs and strays, through a shimmering, ice-skating, winter wonderland to the scrumptious candy kingdom of Sweetieland. From 13 December. For more information contact Ben or Jill at The Corner Shop on +44 (0)20 7494 3665.

© Visit London 2007. All Rights Reserved.

Feedback | Unsubscribe | Privacy Policy | Become a Visit London Partner

"Visit London Limited" is registered in England under No.761149;

Registered Office: Visit London, 2 More London Riverside, London SE1 2RR.